REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL
FOR EMPANELMENT OF HERITAGE CONSERVATION ARCHITECTS BY NATIONAL CULTURE FUND (NCF),
MINISTRY OF CULTURE

1. ABOUT NCF

1.1 The National Culture Fund (NCF), a trust under Ministry of Culture, Government of India, serves as a financing mechanism for enabling donor/sponsor institutions to support protection, restoration, conservation and development of India's rich tangible and intangible cultural heritage (monuments/cultural traditions) directly as partners with the government. National Culture Fund (NCF) was set up by the Government of India, Ministry of Culture as a Trust under the Charitable Endowment Act, 1890 through a Gazette Notification published in the Gazette of India 28th November, 1996.

1.2 NCF is an innovative pattern of cultural funding which enables institutions and individuals to perform their rightful role in promoting and preserving India's rich cultural heritage and to a larger extent, to provide for, financially the cultural aspirations of the society and the nation. NCF is managed by a Council and an Executive Committee. The Council is chaired by the Hon'ble Minister of Culture and has members representing the corporate and public sector, private foundations and non-profit organizations. The Executive Committee is chaired by the Secretary, Ministry of Culture. NCF partners with Corporates/Public Sector, NGOs, State Governments, Individuals & Financial Institutions in order to achieve its objectives. Donations to the NCF are eligible for 100% tax exemptions under Section 80G(ii) of the Income Tax Act, 1961. NCF encourages corporates to partner with it through their CSR (Jan Bhagidaari) for promoting cultural heritage of India. Each project is undertaken by the NCF after approval by the EC and monitored by a Project Implementation Committee

(PIC) that has representation from the NCF, donor and implementing agencies. Funding projects through NCF recognizes that corporate social responsibility is not merely compliance; it is a commitment to support initiatives that measurably improve the initiatives in nation's interest. Among many focus areas as notified under Section 135 of the Companies Act 2013 and Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules 2014, (Companies are legally required to spend a minimum of 2% of their average net profits, calculated over the three preceding financial years, on CSR activities) is national heritage, art and culture. CSR funding for preservation of cultural property can be covered in the clause of CSR policy reproduced verbatim “Protection of national heritage, art & culture including restoration of buildings & sites of historical importance & works of art; setting up public libraries; promotion & development of traditional arts & handicrafts”.

1.3 NCF partakes inbuilt accountability for the activities commissioned under its aegis.

In a larger sense the NCF is envisaged to work in partnership and coherence with the Corporate and Public Sector, NGOs, and State Governments, to allow them to contribute towards the conservation, preservation and development of the tangible and intangible culture and cultural expressions. Simultaneously NCF is striving further to bolster inter-disciplinary research; the creation of new galleries, museums and imparting/organizing skill enhancing professional training in cultural activities. Through these diverse initiatives, programs and ideas, NCF seeks to stimulate and spearhead the heritage awareness with special reference to preservation, conservation and maintenance of India's rich cultural property, both tangible and intangible and is striving towards propagating knowledge and appreciation of the heritage of India.

2. NCF VISION

NCF's role is to establish relationships between private, public, government (central and state), non-government agencies, private institutions and foundations and mobilize resources for the restoration, conservation, protection and development of India's rich, natural, tangible and intangible heritage.

3. NCF PROCESS
